GENOVA MARINA

HOTEL LOCATION

NH Collection Genova Marina is located in the suggestive Old Port area, which was designed by Renzo Piano; it is close to the Aquarium, the Sea Museum and the Ponte dei Mille cruise terminal. The building itself has been built on four floors, with slate roofs and washed-out, reddish plastering typical of Ligurian architecture. It floats on the water and it is supported on special designed stilts overlooking the suggestive and elegant Genoa Gulf. The hotel is at walking distance from the shopping district and the city's UNESCO World Heritage sites, like Palazzo Ducale.
